Maximum Prison visit: “We miss you, Madame Victoire!”

Under the leadership of FDU-Inkingi Executive Committee in Kigali, 25 people from the opposition visited Ms. Victoire Ingabire, Mr. Bernard Ntaganda and Mr. Deogratias Mushayidi this Friday.

Those prisons' visits are very painful moments. The jailers keep an atmosphere of danger, humiliations, superiority and hatred. Both the political prisoners and their visitors are handled as the most dangerous enemies of the regime, second class citizens, maimed outcasts. Despite this environment, Madame Ingabire reminded them the analogy of flexible water, flowing around the obstacles and steadily going its way. One emotional visitor could not hold: “we miss you, Madame Victoire!”

She has been in prison since 14th October 2010, and General Paul Kagame is requesting a life sentence.
